How Long Can the "Last Days" Go On?

A. Not forever because God has two other foreordained time periods that must take place.

1. A seven-year time period known as the Tribulation (Daniel's 70th week – Dan. 9:27; 12:11).
2. A 1,000-year time period known as the Millennium (Rev. 20; Zech. 14:6,7).

B. Until the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled (Lk. 21:24).

1. The Holy City would be trodden down of the Gentiles until--not forever. Time of Gentiles: domination of the world; rule; time of governments of men; the period of Gentiles having power.
2. On June 7, 1967, the old city of Jerusalem became the property of the Jews. They gained control from Gentile forces in the Six-Day War. Most of Jerusalem is no longer trodden down/under Gentile control.

C. Until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in (Rom. 11:25, 26).

With Israel's rejection of Jesus, the time of the Gentiles began and blindness in part (not total) happened to Israel (as a whole, not individually); and this will be until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in. When the fullness of the Gentiles comes in (the fullness of Gentiles being harvested), God will go back to dealing with Israel which will lead to "all Israel shall be saved" (Rom. 11:26).

REDEEMING THE TIME

Ephesians 5:15-17

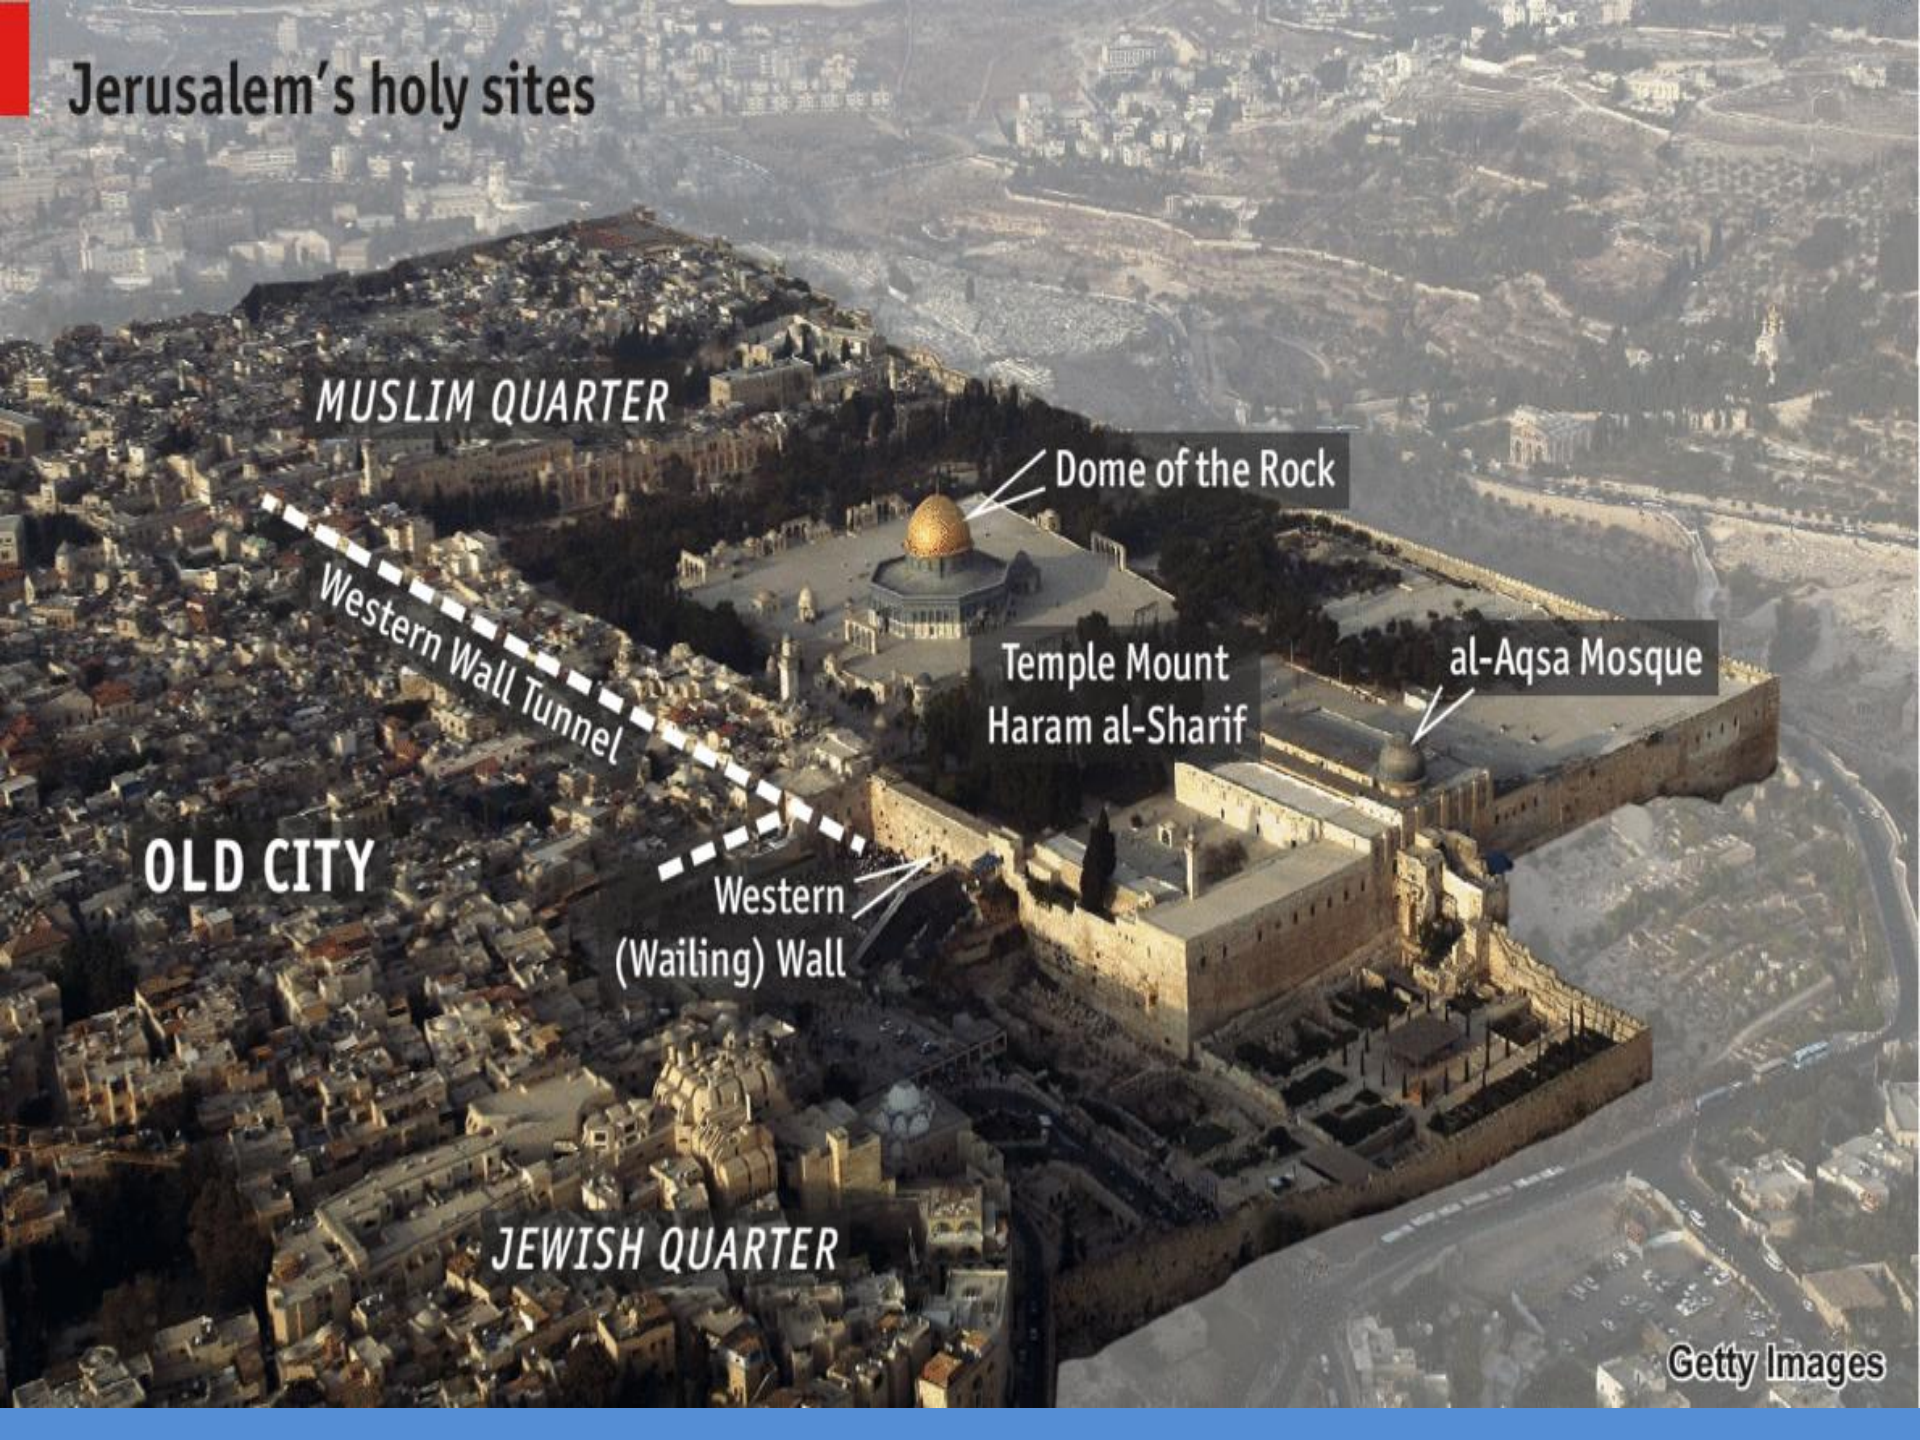

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

The Last Days will not last forever
