

WHEN THINGS NEED TO BE DIFFERENT

I. Our mind often needs changed

A. Isaiah 55:8, 9

B. Acts 10; Jonah 1:2; 3:1

II. Evangelism goes beyond Church services

A. The field of evangelism is the world Jn. 4:35; Matt.13:38

1. People could be saved at their "gatherings" but primarily at their "goings."

2. The center of their operations was not the center of the field of evangelism.

B. We must pray to be a part of God's agenda Matt.9:37, 38

1. There is a harvest ready to be reaped Jn. 4:35

2. Today could be a day of salvation for somebody 2 Cor. 6:1

C. Evangelism is for everybody Mk. 16:15

1. We are witnesses with power Acts 1:8.

2. We are ambassadors with a ministry 2 Cor. 5:18-21

Smith Wigglesworth

On August 11, 1927

- 1. There must be special preparation for the return of Christ and at least half of all believers will be totally unprepared.
- 2. There will be many Christians who believe that they can do whatever they want and God will look the other way.
- 3. It will be common for preachers to deny the existence of hell. Denying hell prepares the way for antichrist.
- 4. It is offensive to talk about the Blood of Christ
- 5. The world will look to worship a man and will overlook his faults to get him into power.
- 6. That people believe that certain preachers are of God simply because of their crowds and their buildings.
- 7. As Churches turn away from the Holy Spirit many believers to go to false teachers.
- 8. The last days are a time for the true people of God to engage in extravagant asking.

EVANGELISM GOES BEYOND CHURCH SERVICES

1. They understood the field of evangelism was the world, not the church.
2. They understood God had an agenda for the world they lived in and sought to be a part of it.
3. They understood that they were His ambassadors and witnesses and that evangelism was everyone's responsibility.
4. They understood people could be saved at their "gatherings" but primarily at their "goings."
5. They understood that the center of their operations (the Church gathering) was not the center of the field of evangelism.