THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID

Amos 9:11-14 prophesies it will be built, “in that day.”

1. A future day from the Old Testament day when he said this.
2. It would be a day when the Tabernacle of David would be raised up and built, “as in the days of old.”
3. It would be in a day of heathen Gentiles being saved.
4. It would be in a day of supernatural harvests.
5. It would be in a day when Israel would be planted in their land never to be removed.

THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID

II. Why We Study It and Need to Pray for It to Be Established.

- A. It is prophetic of Israel's land and the future Kingdom rule of Messiah during the Millennium.
- B. The truths revealed to David pertain to God's pattern and order of New Testament music, praise, and worship.
- C. Its influence on the coming in of the Gentiles (harvest).
- D. Its impact on Revival—refreshing and restoration.
